Foreign Intelligence.

Received by the Milo, Captain Glover, arrived at Boston, in 32 days from Liverpool.

LONDON, August 15.

General Drouet d'Erlon has been condemned to death. He is in America.

We can again state, from the best authority, that it never has been in contemplation to call parliament together for any purpose whatever, until after Christmas; neither is there the most distant prospect of a dissolution. Nor is there an idea of either touching the sinking fund, or of taxing the funds. We can also state from authority, that the revenue is daily improving, and that there are fewer exchequer bills now in circulation than there have been for many years.

August 16.

A letter from Liverpool, dated Wednesday, says, that "the misled populace of Preston in Lancashire, had attacked some manufactories where extensive machinery was used. The 54th had sent a strong detachment from Liverpool, and order would, it was supposed, be soon restored."

The Paris papers state, upon the authority of letters from Magdeburg, that the illness of the king of Prussia is much more serious than was imagined.

The 15th August, the Feast of the Assumption, was to be celebrated at Paris. It happened also to be Bonaparte's birthday.

August 19.

The great depression which has lately existed in the manufacturing districts of the kingdom, is great in the northern parts gradually clearing up. At Manchester, trade has experienced a considerable degree of revival, and many of the towns in Scotland feel still more this genial and beneficial effect: the laboring poor in the towns of Dundee, Arbroath, Montrose, Stonehaven, and Aberdeen, are now in full employment.

The French papers, which, from what cause we know not, have of late been anxious to represent the preparations of the Barbary powers to be formidable and their means of defence adequate, state to us in an article purporting to come from Bastia, "that the Barbarians have no idea of submission. The Dey of Algiers has disposed of every thing for a retreat, and appears disinclined to all accommodation. At first great labor was bestowed on the fortifications, but now it would appear, that the plan of defending the city has been given up, and that a garrison will only be left in the citadel. An encounter may take place in the retreat, according to the number of troops that may present themselves before Algiers" Whither the Dey and his piratical subjects mean to retire is not stated. It is evident that he must be prepared not only to give up his city, but to abandon his fleet to us.

VIENNA, Aug. 4.

There has been for some time a very frequent exchange of couriers between the courts of Petersburgh, Vienna, Paris, and London.

August 20.

The north of Scotland has been the scene of one of those awful and tremendous visitations, an earthquake. It was felt a little before eleven at night last Tuesday, in an angular direction, extending as far as we have yet received accounts, from Inverness, through Forres to Aberdeen, and thence to Perth, slightly at Glasgow, and more slightly at Edinburgh and Leith. There were two shocks. The accounts vary as to their duration; one from Aberdeen says, it lasted 6 seconds, from Forres 20 seconds, at Inverness the concussion lasted a minute. It was most violent there. The church steeple was much injured; chimneys precipitated into the streets: bells rung and the wires broken. A house is said to have been driven into the Moray Frith.

According to the accounts from Frankfort, the opening of the Diet which was to have taken place there on the 5th was postponed to the 19th, in consequence of the absence of some of the ministers.

Sixteen persons were capitally convicted on Friday and Saturday last, before lord chief justice Gibbs, at Norwich, of housebreaking, robbing, and other offences connected with the late riots at Dawnham in Norfolk.

The duke of Clarence, it is reported, recovers very slowly from his late alarming indisposition.

August 21.

The prince regent has been indisposed for the last two days; but we have the satisfaction of acquainting the public that his royal highness has had a good night, and is to day much better.

A quarrel, attended with bloodshed, has broken out between the Prussians and Austrians cantoned at Mentz.—By the prudence, however, of the commanding officers on both sides, order was at length restored.

The French funds are 57f. 5c.

August 23.

We are extremely happy to find that trade is reviving very fast, and that more business has been done at the custom house, within the last week than for a considerable time past, and we have additional satisfaction in stating, that the revenue is daily increasing.

The corn begins to be housed in the neighbourhood of Paris, and the harvest promises well. The principal part of the rye is got in.

In reply to the call for retrenchment and economy, it should be distinctly known that ministers have adopted a regular system of reduction: and that already the ordnance expenditure is reduced from 4 to 1 million; the commissariat department is extremely reduced, as also the barrack department, the transport department entirely abolished, commissary in chief abolished, and the establishment greatly reduced; one third of the inspectors general, and surveyors of taxes, are to be reduced; the W. India commissioners to be reduced from 5 to 3; medical board to be reduced to one member; and land tax registry office to be reduced. Further reductions are in train.

Five out of six of the corsairs that escaped out of Tunis, have been captured.

August 24.

The accounts received this morning relative to his royal highness the Prince Regent, are as favorable as possible. Two of his royal highness' Physicians have taken their leave.

The Journal of the Drome contains an article, dated from Valence on the 9th, stating, that "from Marseilles we learn that the Americans have bombarded Algiers. Lord Exmouth, according to these accounts, will have little to do. We expect the details of this event."

Another of those trials, par contumace, has taken place. The trial of General Lallemand the elder, for having quitted the Department of the Aisne where he commanded to join Lefebvre Desnouettes' expedition against La Fere. He was found guilty & condemned to death. The other Lallemand is to be tried next. Both are in America.

The funds remain low but steady. The exchange upon this country is rather high; 25f. 30c. at 30dys, and 25f. at 10c, at three months.

Paris Aug. 21.

His Majesty is assiduously occupied in the formation of a new Ministry. Seven ministers a portefeuille, and five sans portefuille are to be immediately organized, the former responsible and having a vote in council, the latter without responsibility entitled a voix consultative, but not deliberative. One of the Princes, in the absence of the King is to fill the function of President of the Council, but thetattributions of these Members of the Royal family are assimilated to those of the ministers sans portefeuille. Among the latter the names of the Bishop of Uzes & the vicomte de Chateaubriand are confidently cited.

LONDON, Aug. 10.

The following important paragraph is extracted from the Gazette de France of Wednesday. It appears, though the paragraph is couched in general terms, that a Banking House at Paris had named to its correspondents 15 respectable houses as being in a state of discredit. This circumstance having transpired on the Royal Exchange at London, protests, for want of bills being accepted, took place against drafts drawn from Paris, though the funds were provided. May not this circumstance have contributed to the depreciation in funds both here and at Paris?

The paragraph is as follows:

"The greatest part of our commercial houses had remarked, that for about a month the foreign houses had been renewing their enquiries respecting them, shewing uneasiness, and seeming to apprehend an approaching crisis in our commerce. It appeared extraordinary to observe information sought from all quarters, and particularly from London, relative to merchants of Paris, who from the nature of their transactions and the credit which they enjoyed, ought not to be liable to doubt with respect to their solvency.—These apprehensions, manifested abroad, could not be long in reaching us and narrowing credit here. They were of a nature to make it be presumed that there existed considerable engagements, and a restraint which it was endeavoured to conceal. Happily they were without foundation. They proceeded from a banking house of this city, which pointed out to its correspondents fifteen respectable houses, as being in a state of discredit. The notice thus given, transpired on the Exchange of London, and protests for non-acceptance took place on bills drawn from Paris, for which funds had been provided. Notice of this kind may not only irreparably injure the persons who are their objects, but have always general and disagreeable consequences in a commercial place. Each house considered separately, enjoys a credit in reference to its character, capital, and the nature of its dealings; but there is a collective credit equal to the whole, which produces the opinion of solvency, or if wanting, of insolvency. This credit is confirmed, when within a certain period of time it passes through crises without any marked disasters having distressed commerce & compromised foreign interest; and indeed, what more terrible crises can be mentioned than those which the trade of Paris experienced in 1814 and 1815? By laudable efforts and great sacrifices it has merited the confidence it enjoys, and which it would be highly criminal to deteriorate.

"If there be an obligation to reply to the inquiries made, it is a duty to give the information with accuracy and circumspection. Because a commercial house has the reputation of being rich, that is not a sufficient ground for answering that it is good. Still less would it be proper to say that it's not so, because it is not supposed to be wealthy. The essential is to know, whether its speculations exceed its means. That is the true and just regulator of credit, and ought to serve as the basis of any opinion given on the subject. But if inquirers, of replying to simple and confidential inquirers, that are transmitted, without investigation, and without motive, official acts, which consign to discredit a number of traders, it would require that the event should be immediate to justify such insinuations; for the embarrassment produced may happen to be only the deplorable consequence of a false or malicious prediction; and, besides, being the first to foresee disaster, is but a very melancholy advantage. If the prediction be not realized, and the houses comprehended in such a list lose none of their titles to confidence and respect, it is shameful calumny, and a calamity to trade."

It is a remarkable historical fact, that Algiers, against which such formidable preparations are now making in our harbors was the first town that experienced the dreadful effects of bombardment from ships of war. In the infancy of Louis the Fourteenth's naval power, the Barbary corsairs infested the Mediterranean, and drew on them the vengeance of that monarch. It was on that occasion that a young man, named Barnard Renaud, who had never served on sea, and whose genius the great Colbert had drawn from obscurity, proposed to the council the construction of bomb vessels to act against Algiers. The proposition was at first ridiculed; but the king encouraged the young engineer, and preparation being made, he was sent out with the celebrated Du Quesne, to superintend the performance of his own suggestion. The enterprise completely succeeded; Renaud was honored for his destructive invention; and the Algerines sent deputies to Versailles, to solicit pardon and peace.

LONDON, Aug. 17.

The Paris papers of the 14th August preserve their usual tone and character. They furnish little news, and what they do furnish is doubtful. The most interesting part of their contents is a letter from Cadiz, via Madrid, giving an account of the bold buccaneering of the South American pirates off that harbor. The period of the arrival of the Portuguese Princesses is spoken of doubtfully. The Emperor of Austria, it is said, is about to visit Saxony, and new bonds of alliance between the two States are augured from this journey. Salzburgh and the Innviertel have been declared integral parts of Upper Austria.

The Moniteur received this day, contains a royal Ordinance for the more effectual prevention of the sale of such merchandize and manufactures as may have the good fortune to avoid these means of prevention, and find their way into France. To effect this purpose, the manufactures of cloths plain or mixed, in wool or cotton, and of all tissues of the same sort as those prohibited, coming from abroad, are not allowed to bring them to market, unless verified by a mark of their manufacture, and a number of their registry. These marks shall contain the name of the manufacturer & place of manufacture—Patterns of the cloths and models of the marks, are to be deposited with the proper authorities, for the purpose of comparison, to detect any imposition, and no piece of such cloth shall be exposed to sale without the mark prescribed. These are the principal precautions of the Royal Ordinance, which is drawn up with a degree of care and circumspection well calculated to insure its purpose. It was the boast of our commercial world that our manufactures found their way all over the continent, in spite of Buonaparte's anti-commercial system, and his Berlin and Milan Decrees. We fear that the present Government of France, as far as it wishes to exercise the prohibitory system, will be able to do it with more ingenuity and success.

An article in a Paris paper, dated Naples, July 19, says—"We are daily expecting to hear of Lord Exmouth's expedition. The opinion here is, that it has been much too long delayed. The pirates profit by the interval, in sweeping the Mediterranean, and putting their fortifications in a state of defence. It is even feared, that, without an army for debarkation, it will not be possible to reduce the Regency of Algiers, the most dangerous of the three Barbary Regencies. The Dey will care very little for the destruction of the houses of the town, which belong to the Jews and Moors, while he and his Turks can secure their treasures in their country houses, which certainly have nothing to fear from the English rockets and bombs. It is even doubted whether the Congreve rockets will have any considerable influence on the houses of Algiers, as they are built of stone with flat roofs, on which a layer of damp earth may be spread in sufficient quantity to counteract the effect of any inflammable projectile.

On Wednesday morning some apprehensions were felt here, that serious riots had occurred in Preston, in consequence of a letter which had been that morning received by the mayor from that place, requiring the aid of the military then in this town, and who were immediately marched to Preston. But we are happy to say that a letter was received here by the Mayor on Thursday morning, stating that the disturbance had completely subsided, and that the military had been ordered to turn. We understand that the outrageous which had taken placehavebeen confined to the breaking of a few windows, and damaging the plantation upon the premises of Mr. Horrocks.

Lord Cochrane's trial.—Saturday was the day mentioned for the trial of Lord Cochrane, but it is doubtful whether it will come on before this day. It is said that Lord Cochrane rests his defence upon the circumstance of having been kept in close confinement, in the strong room, for a considerable time after his apprehension & forced to return to prison which constitutes a sufficient punishment for his offence of breaking out of prison. It remains to be seen what weight will be considered as attached to this novel suggestion of his Lordship's friends.

Bridgetown, (Bar.) Aug. 3

Upon resigning the government of Gaudaloupe, His Excellency Sir James Leith, G. C. B. addressed the inhabitants of that Island in the following proclamation.

Inhabitants of Gaudaloupe.—An infamous Treason had removed you from the Government of your legitimate Sovereign—Perfidious chiefs and their Accomplices had prepared the ruin of your Colony—a second time you were about to be reduced to the necessity of an asylum among strangers, when that providence who watches over you, defeated their projects by granting success to the army under my orders, which came to deliver you.

During my Administration, every thing which could tend to your happiness and tranquility, has constantly been the object of my solicitude. I have deemed it a duty to distinguish these among you who have given the proof of their attachment to His most Christian Majesty; and I experienced the greatest satisfaction in having been able to unite the duty which I owe to my own Sovereign, with all those sentiments of respect which I have professed for his most Christian Majesty.

In quiting you I derive much pleasure in leaving the Government of the Colony to his Excellency Count de Lardenois. His noble character—his unbounded attachment to the cause of his Sovereign—his energetic conduct during the last troubles which have agitated your country—are to me sure guarrantees of the prosperity which awaits you under his paternal Government.

Be assured of the deep interest which I shall ever take in the fate of Gudaloupe, and of the good wishes I entertain for its prosperity.

Signed JAMES LEITH,

"We have pretty correct information that the Portuguese expedition, with 10,000 troops, has arrived in this river"

Extract of a letter from the consul of the United States at Liverpool, dated August 19.

"The long continuance of unfavorable weather has considerably advanced the prices of wheat; and under the present prospects, it seems probable that prices may yet so advance, as to open the ports of this country to foreign grain. Wheat at this place now is 12s. 6d. a 13s. per 70lbs."

Extract of a letter dated Liverpool, August 26, 1816.

"Dollars have again fallen to 4s. 10d. per oz. but American stock has advanced; this day I sold a quantity at 85 per cent, for 6 per cents, payments cash; I think there is every probability of that being higher from a desire that has lately appeared in London and throughout the country, to sell out of the British funds, and make investments in the American."

Remarkable fact.—On the 24th ult. in a gale, Mr. Woodward, brother in law of Capt. Glover, of the ship Milo, arrived at Boston, was lost overboard; and Mr. W's wife died the same day, at Boston.

Liverpool Market.

Extract of a letter from Liverpool, dated August 24.

We have had two dull weeks in the cotton market. This week the sales have been 8000 bags, and the import has been double that quantity

Extract of a letter, dated
LIVERPOOL, Aug. 24, 1816.

"The detention of the Milo enables us to advise you of a sale of Upland Cotton, grown from Sea Island seed, having been effected at 21d a 21 1-4d per lb. It has had little effect however on other descriptions or qualities which are steady at our former quotations. Tobacco is dull. A cargo of American Tar has been sold at 13s a 13s. 6d per bbl. free from water. In one instance 15s per cask has been paid for some very prime Turpentine.

Ashes are rather improving, and New York Pots would bring 55s. and Pearls 63s per cwt. Sour Flour has been in great request at 24s a 26s per bbl.

A cargo of Sweet has lately arrived from Baltimore, but the price is not yet fixed. It is now determined that our ports will be closed against the admission of Foreign Grain for home consumption for the next three months. The average of Wheat for the last six weeks being only 76s 5d per quarter. The continued bad weather however renders the prospects of the harvest extremely critical. American Stock is quoted at 85 per ct. for new 6 per cts. and Dollars may be purchased here at 4s. each.—We annex a statement of the important and sales of Cotton since the beginning of the year, with some other calculations in which we are quite aware we cannot do more than make an approximation to the truth."

NEW SUBJECT OF POSTAGE.

One day last week as the post-master in this town, was opening the great eastern mail, closed at Portland, out jumped a full grown Cat, not a little fatigued with a journey of 60 miles over a rough road, and occasionally subjected to the weight of the coachman's feet. It is not known whether she was sent westward to advocate the question of the seperation of Maine, or was going to Washington to catch some of the rats about deserting the ship of state. As no law exists for franking live stock, the post-master has detained her on suspicion of being a spy, till he receives the orders of the department in her case.

The schooner Hiram, Captain Devens, has arrived at Newport, from Sierra Leona, reports, that a French squadron, consisting of several frigates, with transports, had arrived at Goree on 27th July, having on board the French governor, who were to take possession of Goree and Senegal; one of the frigates was cast away near Senegal. Sir James Yeo was at Sierra Leona, bound down the coast after the Spanish and Portuguese slave vessels. Captain D. adds, that the war between the negroes of the interior and sea coast, still continued.

Copy of a Letter from the Rev. Samue Newell, a Missionary in India, to Mr. Reuben Smith, of Ballston, dated

BOMBAY Dec. 8, 1815.

Your kind letter of the 19th of March reached me some time ago, and afforded me much pleasure. I should have answered it immediately, but as brother Hall was writing to Princeton about that time, I thought it might be as well to wait a little, as he probably communicated to your society all the information which we had to communicate then. Before you get this you will probably know that I am at Bombay with brother Hall, and that brother Nott is on his way to America, I can now inform you that we are at length permanently established at Bombay by the authority or rather permission of the Court of Directors. This joyful information was communicated to us a few days ago by Sir E. Nepean the governor of Bombay. We now hope for an addition to our number, especially since brother Nott has left us. There is every reason to hope and expect that two or three more of our brethren would be permitted to settle here and join in the glorious work of preaching Christ to the Heathen. We need an addition to our present establishment very much. We have three great objects before us. the Ministration of the word of life to a great multitude of people wholly given to idolatry; the instruction of the rising generation; by the establishment and superintendance of schools; and the translating and printing of the scriptures in the Mahratta language—We have made a begining in these three Departments of our work, but we feel that two men are insufficient to prossecute so arduous a task with facility and dispatch. The harvest is great indeed and labourers few.

With respect to Persia, concerning which you make some enquries, the King of course is a Mahometan, but he seems to be very tolerant to Christians. I have written home a greatdeal concerning Western Asia, and you may probably see my communications on the subject before this reaches you—this must be my apology for not enlarging on that point here.—You will perceive by the multitude of business we have on our hands, that we have not much leasure for writing. We shall endeavor however in our hasty way, to answer all the letters we receive from our friends. Believe me, dear sir, I was truly gratified with your letter, and I beg you will do me the favor to write again by the first convenient opportunity.

Yours very affectionately
S. NEWELL.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York,

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor a feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and he restores to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

STOP THIEF!

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, about ten o'clock last night, Negro ISAAC, about 21 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very stout made and somewhat bow-legged—he has remarkable long flat feet and long heels—he has a variety of clothing which is deemed unnecessary to describe.

He stole away from my stable, at the same time, a BLACK PONEY, stout made, with roached mane, bob tail, paces, canters and trots, branded with the figure 2, and is remarkable for a stiff carriage in his gait.

Also, ran away in company with Isaac his brother DENNIS, about 18 or 19 years of age, very black, rather taller and not so stout made as Isaac, he took off a small BAY HORSE, in bad order.

It is presumed Isaac has a false pass and will endeavor to get to the northern states.
